

Join the American Association of University Women
Tarrant County Branch & Northeast Tarrant County Branch
In Partnership with the Fort Worth Library

Celebrating Women's History Month

Fort Worth Central Library
500 West Third Street - downtown Fort Worth

Thursday, March 17, 2016

5:00 pm Reception, Chappell Meeting Room - off Art Gallery

Light Refreshments will be served

5:30 - 6:00 pm Short Business Meeting

6:15-7:30 Program- Tandy Lecture Hall

Guest Speaker:

Stella Robertson, Alcon Laboratories Retiree,
will speak on Entrepreneurship and Angel Investing.

No Charge. Reservations are Requested.

RSVP by Sunday, March 13 by 6pm

To Peggy Hendon pkhendon@gmail.com

Map and directions are attached on page 2.

FREE PARKING in the Third Street Parking Garage for library patrons.
Bring your parking pass to the Library Circulation Desk by 8 pm for validation.

For those who would like to go out to eat after the event:
We recommend Taverna, in walking distance of the Library.
450 Throckmorton Street, Fort Worth, TX 76102 Italian Cuisine
<http://tavernabylombardi.com/dinner/>

Community Service: Mardi Bras Drive - bring new bras for donation to a women's shelter. Contact Tricia Deitz deitz3@hotmail.com for more details.

FORT WORTH CENTRAL LIBRARY MAP

The Central Library is located downtown at the intersection of 3rd and Taylor at 500 W. Third St. (817-871-7323) and is open until 8 pm. Recommended parking is the 3rd Street Garage at 3rd & Taylor (past the Quiznos sign). If you park in the garage, bring your parking ticket for Library validation. (2 1/2 hours) There are also parking meters around the library with free parking after 6pm.

Enter the Library front doors and proceed down the hall. Stop at the counter to get your parking pass validated- before or after lecture. At the end of hall, turn right and enter the Art Gallery. The Chappel Meeting Room is in this area.