FEMINIST ACTIVISM & CIVIC ENGAGEMENT IN THIS POLITICAL MOMENT

This is not the time for feminists to sit on the sidelines. The need is too great, the urgency too strong. We've come too far and worked too hard to go back now. Why and how we must keep on fighting to protect and advance our rights. Katherine Spillar, who co-founded and leads one of the feminist movement's most influential organizations, will share stories and strategies from the field to inform and inspire us as we move forward.
