Happy New Year!

As we enter this brand new year of 2016 rested, reenergized and committed to the work of AAUW, we continue to advance equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research.

There is no better time to get a fresh start than the beginning of January, in a new year that is full of promise for new beginnings. This is perfect time to give yourself a brand new beginning in AAUW by getting to know a member you have not had an opportunity to meet, joining a new Interest Group, attending a Board or Branch meeting, and planning to travel to the AAUW State Convention in April. Start now! You can do it!

Our Tarrant County Branch ended 2015 in outstanding style. Our Sister to Sister event for middle school girls was great. It was enjoyed by the girls, college women and volunteers. A grand salute for a job well done to Mary DuBoise, Orlew Lauger and each of the AAUW volunteers. Our Holiday Potluck was a smashing success! The food, music, conversation and Stayton hospitality were fantastic. Thanks to everyone who made this possible! The holiday season was made extra special this year by our new fundraiser, the beautiful poinsettias. Thanks to Lynn Hayes and Duchess Humphrey who took a leap of faith to try something new. The plants were very nice, beautiful and loved by everyone who purchased or received one as a gift.

The sustainability of our Tarrant County Branch of AAUW is very important. The 2016 nominating committee has begun the task of securing the best candidates for various offices; please give them your support. Our branch needs your time and talents in leadership positions. -- Barbara Cager

AAUW Tarrant County Branch welcomes four new members:

Josita Baker, jlbaker817@yahoo.com, birthday August 17, is the first new member to join on line! She can tell you how easy that is. Josita received a BA in Journalism & Public Relations from the University of Central Oklahoma and an MS in Management from Southern Nazarene University. Working in Higher Education for 10 years, she is now an Advisor, Instructor, and Program Manager at Tarleton State University. Her passion is to promote higher education to the public. Rebecca (Becki) Griffith, bg636@live.com, birthday November 4, has returned to the metroplex and wants to get involved in the community. She earned a BA in Journalism at Temple University and an MEd in Ed Tech Leadership from Lamar University. Becki is enjoying her new position as Registrar at Tarrant County College-NW. She was attracted to AAUW's mission and looks forward to the Programs and many opportunities offered through all the interest groups.

Julie Patel, spjuls@gmail.com, is the second new members to join on line! She visited at our November Potluck dinner and liked our group!

If you have any questions about membership, please contact Orlew Lauger at o.lauger@sbcglobal.net.

Community Service

JANUARY COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT – MLK Day of Service

This week the "Action Alert: MLK Day of Service" email went out and we hope you will be able to participate in this January 18th service project. Susan Brinkley and Dawn Ellison have worked hard through their 'Collaboration Connection' group and our participation is needed to make this a success. Talk to your friends and sign up together to make a difference on this day of service. Register here and type AAUW in the space "church name," www.tarranttogether.org

Our Community Service Group had a great time in December, decorating lounge areas and halls in the space used for emergency housing for women and families in need at the Center for Transforming Lives (formerly the YWCA), downtown Fort Worth. Thanks to all who participated, with your donations of wonderful Christmas decorations and taking the time to deck the halls!

Ideas are needed for a service project in February. One possibility would be to set up a voter registration drive, if there is interest. Let me know what you think – participation is open to everyone in our branch and ideas from all are welcomed! -- Tricia Deitz, deitz3@hotmail.com

Join us for lunch and a docent led tour at the Kimbell Art Museum, Thursday, January 28, 11 am. The women of AAUW will be touring the current exhibit at the Kimbell Art Museum: Gustave Caillebotte: The Painter's Eye. "The exhibit brings together over fifty of the most important and beloved pieces of Caillebotte's career, lent from private collections, public institutions, and the artist's own family. This exhibition will delve into Caillebotte's diverse inspirations, offer critical insights into the cultural context of his work, and position him firmly within the pantheon of French avant-garde art." For more information see <http://caillebotte.kimbellart.org/exhibit>.

We plan to gather for lunch at the Kimbell Buffet Restaurant at 11 am and afterwards tour the exhibit in the Piano Pavilion at 12:30 pm, led by our Rock Star Guide, Orlew Lauger. If you would like to be a part of this cultural outing or have questions, please email Betty Hove at msbrodee@aol.com. ## Book Clubs

¡ADELANTE! BOOK CLUB

January is National Mentoring Month

You are welcome on Monday, January 11, at 10:00 am, at the home Debbie Powell, where Peggy Harwood will lead our discussion of The Confidence Code: The Science and Art of Self-Assurance — What Women Should Know, by Katty Kay and Claire Shipman.

"The authors of the bestselling Womenomics provide an informative and practical guide to understanding the importance of confidence — and learning how to achieve it — for women of all ages and at all stages of their careers."

February is Black History Month

Please join us on Monday, February 15, at 10:00 am when we will discuss Disgruntled: A Novel by Asali Solomon, 2001–02 AAUW American Fellow, at the home of Peggy Hendon.

"Effortlessly funny and achingly poignant, Asali Solomon's long-awaited debut novel follows Kenya from West Philadelphia to the suburbs, from public school to private, from childhood through adolescence, as she grows increasingly disgruntled by her inability to find any place or thing or person that feels like home. A coming-of-age tale, a portrait of Philadelphia in the late '80s and early '90s, an examination of the impossible double binds of race, Disgruntled is a novel about the desire to rise above the limitations of the narratives we're given and the painful struggle to craft fresh ones we can call our own."

Please RSVP to Tina Caliga by Friday February 12th, tcaliga@gmail.com.

LITERATURE GROUP BOOK CLUB

January Lit Group is scheduled for Monday, January 11th at 7:30 pm, hosted by Joyce Beck. Kay Yount will review The Rosie Project by Graeme Simsion, an "Aussie." The book is an international bestseller, now available in paperback, which Amazon, calls a "romantic comedy 'bursting with warmth, emotional depth, and...humor,' (Entertainment Weekly) featuring the oddly charming, socially challenged genetics professor, Don, as he seeks true love."

February Lit Group will be hosted by Lynn Hayes on Monday, February 8 at 7:30 pm. Jane Bruckner will give the book review. Please RSVP to Lynn at lynn.hayes@dot.gov.

PUBLIC POLICY

The AAUW Public Policy Alliance pilot (Collaborative Connection) is offering you an opportunity to serve your community while proving the pilot's concept that linking organizations can CREATE A LARGER PUBLIC POLICY FOOTPRINT for the participating organizations.

Tarrant Churches Together (TCT) has asked the four other Alliance partners to add 50 new volunteers this year. Please join us in partnership with TCT in the upcoming 6th Annual MLK Day of Service on January 18.

On January 7th an Alliance "Call to Action" Message was emailed to all AAUW TCB members with all the details and how to volunteer. Please respond and be a part of this day of community service, including options to help feed families, clothe children, clean up a neighborhood, sack groceries, stock pantry shelves, and much, much more! Choose from among more than 30 opportunities to make a difference in one life--or many! Registration (use AAUW for church name) www.tarranttogether.org
